

3. You will get good at what you practice.

You know that if you practice pirouettes with proper arm positions, you get good at pirouettes with proper arm positions.

So remember that if you practice dancing with fullness, trying new things, being determined, being kind, encouraging feedback, bringing positive energy to work...you will get good at those things too.